

VOLPAIR

Where the game starts.
Where connections happen.

A partnership proposal for leading padel booking platforms

volpair.com · volpair.app

Confidential — May 2026

Padel is one of the fastest ways to meet someone new. Nobody's built the app for that.

Every week, millions of padel players share a court, share a moment, share a post-match drink — and then lose each other in the noise.

Booking platforms do one thing brilliantly: fill courts. But the moment the match ends, the social layer vanishes. There's no way to discover who else is out there — people you've never played with, who might be exactly your type, on and off the court.

- No way to discover new people you've never played with, matched to you by real data
- No way to find a compatible doubles partner based on actual play history and skill level
- No way to turn a shared love of the sport into something more

Tinder, Bumble, Hinge? They match on stated preferences. A profile. A photo. A guess.

Padel booking platforms already have the real data. It's sitting idle.

Volpair activates it.

A 90-minute padel match is more intimate than most first dates.

When you play padel with someone, you:

- 🎾 See how they handle pressure
- 🤝 Experience how they communicate under stress
- ⚡ Feel whether there's real energy between you
- 😂 Share a post-match moment that breaks down barriers fast

That's more intimacy than most people achieve after three generic coffee dates.

Volpair uses your platform's real play data to surface the people most compatible with you — before you've even met them.

*"The sport is the vehicle.
Connection is the destination."*

specifically for padel players.

CONNECT MODE — Primary

Discover players in your padel world — people you've never met, algorithmically matched to you by real play data. Mutual romantic signals only — nobody knows you're interested until they are too. No rejection. No awkwardness.

PLAY MODE — Secondary

Find a compatible doubles partner for your next game. Matched by real skill level, availability patterns, and playing style — not self-reported preferences.

THE CORE LOOP

Connect your booking platform

Profile builds automatically from real match history

Discover compatible players you've never played with

Send a signal → Match → Start a conversation → Meet on court for the first time

25 million reasons this matters.

 Padel players: high income, socially active

Padel is not a niche anymore. It is a global phenomenon — and it has no social or dating layer. That gap is Volpair.

Three platforms. Three phases. One growing community.

Volpair is built on top of the world's leading padel booking platforms — starting with the most community-focused and scaling to the largest.

ON THE COURT

Manchester, UK · Founded 2025

- 🇬🇧 UK padel club focus
- 🔧 Bookings, memberships, coaching, events
- 🤝 Community-first positioning

PHASE 1 — Launch Partner

The right scale to test, learn, and prove the model.

MATCHI

Gothenburg, Sweden · Founded 2012

- 🕒 10+ years racket sports tech
- 🌐 Scandinavia, Germany + Europe
- 🎾 Padel, tennis, badminton, pickleball, squash

PHASE 2 — Nordic Expansion

10+ years of tech, multiple markets, ready to scale.

PLAYTOMIC

Madrid, Spain · Founded 2017

- 🌐 60+ countries
- 🏟️ 6,000+ partner clubs
- 🎾 22,000+ courts
- 👤 3.1M+ registered players

PHASE 3 — Global Scale

The global leader — 3.1M players waiting for this product.

No one is doing what Volpair does. The space is completely open.

Booking platforms capture the data. Volpair is the social layer that activates it.

We are not a competitor to any booking platform. We are the product that makes your users stickier, happier, and more likely to book more courts.

Our proprietary compatibility engine. Built entirely from court behaviour.

Calculated automatically from real match history. No questionnaires. No self-reporting. Pure behavioural data.

	Skill compatibility Level delta — you want challenge, not mismatch	25 pts
	Play style match Aggressive vs defensive, net vs baseline	20 pts
	Availability overlap Morning/evening, weekday/weekend patterns	20 pts
	Location proximity Distance between home areas	15 pts
	Court chemistry Times played together + post-match responses	10 pts
	Social proximity Shared padel connections and mutual players	10 pts
TOTAL		100 pts

This quality of compatibility signal doesn't exist on any dating app in the world.

Built for padel players. Not repurposed from elsewhere.

VOLLEY

Invisible mutual romantic signal. Fires only when both people send one. Zero rejection by design.

SERVE

Structured first message. Replaces the blank chat box. Ends ghosting by design.

RADAR

Live spatial view of nearby opted-in players plotted by real bearing and distance.

FIND A PARTNER

Algorithmic discovery filtered by level, intent, and Volpair Score. Quality over quantity.

POST-MATCH PROMPT

24h after a game: "Want to connect with anyone you played with?" Catches the moment.

HOME CLUB

Link your home court. Builds local community and loyalty around specific venues.

STATS PROFILE

Win rate, level badge, play style, top clubs — all from real booking data. Instant credibility.

MUTUAL NETWORK

"3 players you know also played with them" — social proof before you even connect.

OPEN COURTS

Browse open matches available on partner platforms — Playtomic, Matchi, and On The Court — and join directly through Volpair.

Your clubs benefit too — and that matters to your platform.

Volpair doesn't just benefit booking platforms. Every club whose players use Volpair becomes a more valuable, more social, more connected venue.

THE CLUB'S CHALLENGE

Players book a court, play, leave. No reason to come back beyond sport.

Courts go unfilled in off-peak slots.

Players drift between clubs. No emotional connection to the venue.

WHAT VOLPAIR CHANGES

Players return more often — their social life is here too.

Open Courts fills gaps — players post availability, others join.

Home Club creates loyalty — "my club" becomes part of identity.

A padel player with an active social life at a club books 2–3× more courts per month than one without. Volpair makes every club's courts more social — and that drives bookings for your platform.

How this works with your platform.

What we ask from you

- 1 API access to player match history, skill levels, and booking data
- 2 A data partnership agreement — GDPR-compliant, user-consented, scoped to padel activity only
- 3 Optional: co-marketing to your user base

User consent is built into the onboarding flow. No data collected without active, informed consent.

What you get in return

More bookings

Volpair matches lead directly to court bookings.

User retention

Players with a social layer stay on your platform longer.

Product differentiation

The only booking platform powering a dating experience.

Co-marketing reach

Volpair promotes your platform to every user.

Aggregated insights

Anonymous play patterns from your user base.

Revenue share

% of premium subscriptions from your users.

We're building this deliberately. Starting small. Proving it. Scaling it.

This is not a platform-first model. We grow with our partners, not ahead of them.

PHASE 1 — NOW

On The Court

0 → 500 active paying users

- Exclusive first-mover status
- Priority API integration support
- Direct product input
- Dedicated success reporting

PHASE 2 — NEXT

Matchi

500 → 3,000–5,000 users

- Proven integration model
- Real user testimonials
- Cross-platform matching begins
- Nordic + German markets

PHASE 3 — FUTURE

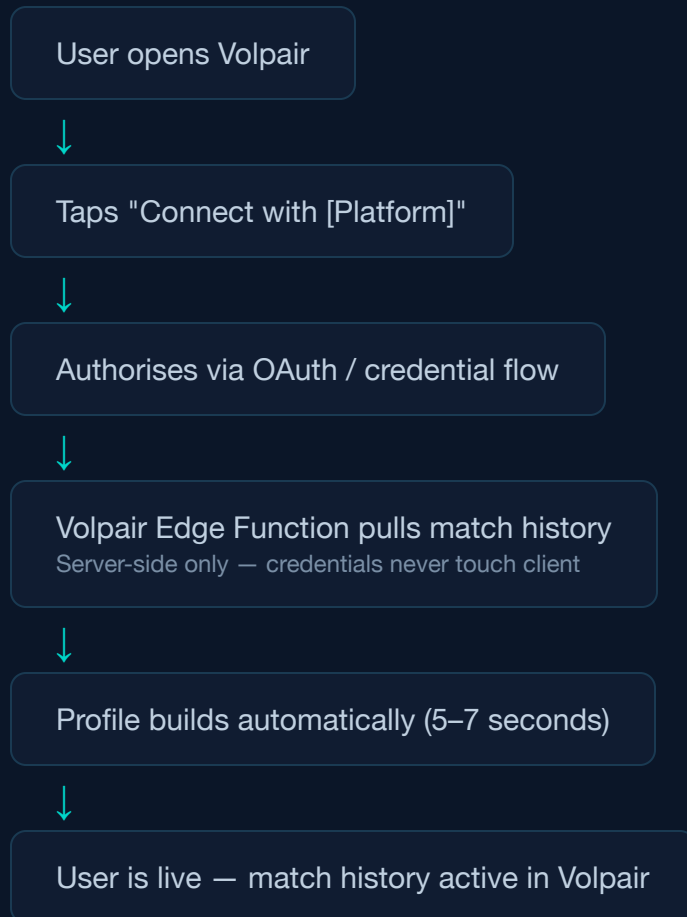

Playtomic

3,000–5,000+ → global scale

- Battle-tested across 2 platforms
- Proven: Volpair drives bookings
- Real traction + leverage
- Joint global go-to-market

Straightforward. Secure. User-consented.

How the data flow works

What we request

- Match history (date, club, result, partners)
- Skill level + level confidence score
- Booking frequency and timing patterns
- Club affiliations

What we do NOT request

- Payment information
- Personal contact details beyond name
- Any data outside padel activity

Built on Supabase + React Native · All data encrypted at rest and in transit ·
GDPR-compliant by design · User deletion on request

The journey — from booking to connection.

BEFORE VOLPAIR

User books a court, plays a great game, match ends. No way to find compatible people they haven't met yet. The opportunity disappears.

WITH VOLPAIR

User books a court, plays a great game — and Volpair is already surfacing people who match their profile, playing style, and availability. The sport becomes the start of something more.

- 1 Downloads Volpair. Connects their [Platform] account in 30 seconds.
- 2 Profile builds automatically from real match history — skill level, win rate, top clubs, play style.
- 3 Answers 4 quick questions: city · intent · visibility · one-liner bio
- 4 Immediately discovers compatible players — algorithm-matched, never met before, same padel world.
- 5 Sends a Volley → Gets matched → Starts a conversation → Meet on court for the first time.
- 6 24h after every game: "Want to connect with anyone you played with?" — the loop continues.

More games = more data = better matches = more Volpair activity = more courts booked. The loop is self-reinforcing.

This isn't a concept. It's a working product.

Version A — On The Court

What we're proposing — to On The Court.

We're approaching On The Court as our founding platform partner.

- 1 API access to player match history and profile data (with user consent flow)
- 2 A data partnership agreement — GDPR-compliant, scoped to padel activity only
- 3 Optional: co-marketing to your UK user base

What On The Court gets

- ✦ Exclusive Phase 1 launch partner status
First and only platform integrated during the UK launch phase
- ✦ Direct product collaboration
Your feedback directly shapes the product roadmap throughout Phase 1
- ✦ First access to engagement and booking uplift data
See exactly how Volpair drives court bookings for your clubs
- ✦ Co-marketing across Volpair's growing user base
Your platform promoted to every Volpair user in the UK
- ✦ Revenue share — 20% of all premium subscriptions from your users

This is low risk and low lift. We handle all the engineering. We handle all the user experience. You provide API access — and your users get a social layer no other booking platform offers.

THE TEAM

Built by people who know sport, business, and how to scale both.

Aimee Lawson*CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

20+ years in marketing and communications, with a career spanning adidas, Google, Samsung, Microsoft, and Jaguar Land Rover. Founder of Eutopia (Manchester) and co-founder of Déité. Now focused on commercialising brands, athletes, and opportunities in emerging sport — with a deep focus on padel. Aimee brings the commercial infrastructure, brand expertise, and industry relationships to take Volpair from product to market leader.

Catherine Morgans*CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Seasoned executive with extensive experience in HR, organisational development, and large-scale business transformation across public and private sectors. A Board-level operator with a track record of delivering complex change programmes in healthcare, government, and commercial environments. Catherine brings the operational rigour, stakeholder management, and strategic execution capability that turns a strong product into a scalable business.

Volpair premium is priced at £19.97 / €19.97 / $19.97 per month. A meaningful price point that reflects a premium product — and generates real returns for our platform partners.

ATTRIBUTION RULE — SIMPLE & FAIR

Revenue share is tied to the booking platform a user is actively connected to at the time of payment. If a user switches platforms, the revenue follows — the new platform earns, the previous one stops. No windows. No disputes. No ambiguity.

25 million padel players.
Zero dedicated social or dating apps.

Your data makes it possible.

Let's build it together.
